Discussion Questions

Read: Revelation Chapter 6

Question #1: How do you understand the book of Revelation? Is it mostly about what is going to happen in the future or does it reveal things that are going on right now?

Additional Question: If Revelation is a book that reveals what is going on right now in our world, then what kind of benefit might that be for you in your life?

Question #2: Revelation 6 talks a lot about some pretty horrible things. Read Matthew 28:18 and talk about your thoughts about who Jesus is.

Additional Question: Read Luke 12:5. Satan has limited power in this world. How do you understand the power of God and the power of Satan? And how does this play out in real life?

Question #3: Read Revelation 6:2 and Matthew 24:5. This is describing religious deception, or how the truths of God are twisted into lies. Can you see how the white horse and its rider reflect this?

Additional Question: In the world you live in, do you see the truth of God being expressed or the lies of the enemy? Which may sometimes seem to have more impact in your life?

Question #4: Read Revelation 6:3-4 and Matthew 24:6-7. What do you see here being played out in the world?

Additional Question: Think about your last answer and now think about the Book of Revelation and how important it might be for your life?

Question #5: Read Revelation 6:5-6. In Matthew 24:7 Jesus said there would be famines. This is talking about how people will not be able to afford food but the rich will be unaffected and still able to afford luxuries like oil and wine.

When you think of this is your first thought to get mad at Jesus for not fixing this injustice, or do you place the blame on the Enemy and sin for causing such brokenness in our world?

Additional Question: Read Hebrews 1:3 and then read Romans 1:21-25. The first talks about how Jesus sustains all things and the second talks about how God gives people over to the sinful desires of their hearts. How do you see these things working hand in hand? Does this affect how you think you should live and how you act toward others?

Invitation and Mission for this week

Your world is struggling. There is brokenness and evidence of the affects of sin all around. You struggle with these things too and it affects you.

Your invitation this week is to ponder the reality of this in light of Revelation chapter 5. Meditate on chapter 5 and consider the centrality of the Lamb and who He is in the midst of all the brokenness. Ask yourself if this is more than just a story, but something of real power to help you in this life.
