Discussion Questions

1. When you think of Jesus resurrection and what that accomplished for us all, how do you feel? If he was sitting right beside you in this moment, what would you say to him?
2. Reread Luke 7:41-43. How much have you been forgiven? Think about the weight that Jesus sacrifice lifted off your shoulders for a moment. Then talk about what that freedom means for your everyday life.
3. Discuss how you can share this good news this people around you. Can we be bold enough to share the gospel with people around us? I know its challenging but if Jesus was willing to die for us, what are we willing to do to reach the lost? We want everyone to experience the freedom from sin that we have and the joy of salvation!

Invitation and Mission for this week

The mission for this week is two parts.

1. to reach out to one person and invite them to church or house church.
2. Prayerfully ask the lord to show you who this should be.

Pray for each other
